

DECLARATION

I have overseen the arrangements for the families' and general public ballots for seats when Tony Blair gives evidence to the Iraq Inquiry on 29 January 2010.

In my independent view, the arrangements put in place for access to the ballot were open and accessible to all. I can verify that all eligible applications for the ballot were entered into the draw and that all the draws were conducted in a fair and transparent manner.

Karamjit Singh CBE
18 January 2010