

Karamjit Singh CBE is currently the Northern Ireland Judicial Appointments Ombudsman (www.nijao.gov.uk) and the Social Fund Commissioner for both Great Britain (www.irs-review.org.uk) and Northern Ireland (www.osfcni.org.uk). He also serves as a member of the QC selection panel for England and Wales (www.qcappointments.org.uk) and has just stood down after nine years as a member of the UK's Electoral Commission (www.electoralcommission.org.uk).

His previous appointments have included membership of the Criminal Cases Review Commission, the Civil Service Commission, the Judicial Studies Board, the Police Complaints Authority, the Parole Board and the Employment Tribunals Panel.